KPO Consultants
Global Legal Process Outsourcing Conference 2010
Outsourcing benefits are easy to conceptualize, but implementation and accrual of profits require intelligent diligence. For long industry insiders have felt the need for a common platform of repute addressing the concerns of buyers and vendors alike – a global platform for smart brain storming and networking for effective value creation for all stakeholders. The cross continental nature of industry, with buyers and vendors separated by oceans, time zones and cultures makes it imperative for all to come together under a common umbrella and make a collective effort to catapult the industry into the next orbit.

Turbulent Times: Onwards and Upwards for Intellectual Property?
3rd Global Forum on Intellectual Property
GFIP 2011 will once again bring together some of the world’s most influential IP and industry leaders to explore and discuss new IP trends and to harness business opportunities in a setting conducive to creative thinking. A distinguished line up of international speakers and panelists will consider and discuss "hot button" issues relating to the theme of “Turbulent Times: Onwards and Upwards for Intellectual Property?” This is timely given the promising but challenging times ahead for businesses, having emerged from the global economic downturn of 2008/2009, and with the Asia Pacific region leading the charge for economic recovery.
GFIP 2011 is expected to attract about 500 delegates from various IP and related fields around the globe.

Fifth International Conference on Design Principles and Practices
This Conference will address a range of critically important themes relating the design today. It is a place to explore the meaning and purpose of ‘design’, as well as speaking in grounded ways about the task of design and the use of designed artifacts and processes. The Conference is a cross-disciplinary forum which brings together researchers, teachers and practitioners to discuss the nature and future of design. The resulting conversations weave between the theoretical and the empirical, research and application, market pragmatics and social idealism.
