INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME 53

For fifty-two years this journal has been known as the Cornell Law Quarterly. Although Volume 52 appeared in six numbers, we continued to style ourselves a Quarterly, designating our issues Fall, Winter I, Winter II, Spring I, Spring II, and Summer. The consequence of this delicate concession to tradition was an epidemic of confusion among our readers and subscribers, together with some embarrassment on the part of the Board of Editors. We therefore bow to the inevitable and, with Volume 53, adopt our new name—Cornell Law Review.

The change in appellation is accompanied by a revised format, designed to enhance the attractiveness and readability of the Review. The pages are of higher-quality paper and the type is larger and more modern. The new cover was designed by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Ellis, III.
