The Cornell Law Association Executive Board is a group of alumni that gives voice to the interests of alumni at large—over 11,000 graduates. They work to ensure alumni participation as a key component of the Law School. Their objectives are to foster a close association between the Law School and its alumni and among its alumni, to promote the interest and welfare of the Law School, and to promote the practice of law and the highest standards of learning and ethics in the legal profession.

Production and publication of the Cornell Law Review is funded through the Ambassador William J. vanden Heuvel Cornell Law Review Endowment Fund, a gift in perpetuity from William J. vanden Heuvel, A.B. 1950, J.D. 1952, and Editor-in-Chief of its precursor publication, Cornell Law Quarterly.

Antidiscrimination Statement

It is the policy of the Cornell Law Review to support equality of opportunity. No person shall be denied membership in the Cornell Law Review or participation in any of its activities, including publication, on the basis of any legally prohibited discrimination involving, but not limited to, such factors including race, color, creed, religion, national or ethnic origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability. To improve the overall quality of its publication, the Cornell Law Review hopes to expand its membership to include persons from traditionally underrepresented groups, as well as persons with diverse viewpoints. Sexual harassment is an act of discrimination and, as such, will not be tolerated.

Permission

The Cornell Law Review hereby grants permission to nonprofit organizations to reproduce and distribute the contents of this journal, in whole or in part, for educational purposes, including distribution to students, provided that the copies are distributed at or below cost and identify the author, the Cornell Law Review, the volume, the number of the first page of the article, and the year of publication.

All other inquiries for permission should be sent to the attention of the Editor-in-Chief.
