BAR ASSOCIATION ESSAY CONTEST

The American Bar Association has announced the opening of its 1944 Essay Contest. The subject to be discussed is: "What Instrumentality for the Administration of International Justice Will Most Effectively Promote the Establishment and Maintenance of International Law and Order?" The prize for the author of the winning essay will be $3,000.

Essays must be submitted on or before March 15, 1944, and must be restricted to five thousand words, including quoted matter and citations in the text. Footnotes or notes following the essay will not be included in the computation of the number of words. No essay will be accepted unless prepared specially for the contest and not previously published.

The contest will be open to all members of the Association in good standing whose applications for membership in the Association have been received at the headquarters office in Chicago prior to January 1, 1944, except previous winners, members of the Board of Governors and employees of the Association.

For further information and instructions, prospective contestants should communicate promptly with the Executive Secretary, American Bar Association, 1140 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

THE CORNELL LAW SCHOOL

The LL.B degree was awarded to three candidates in May and to twelve in October. Two of these candidates, Ephraim Taylor Brown, Jr. and Harry George Henn, were elected to the Order of the Coif and were graduated with distinction.

Thirty-three students were in attendance at the School during the Summer Term. The enrollment for the Fall Term is the same, or 17% of normal. The following table shows the distribution among classes:

	Summer 1943			Fall 1943
	Men	Women	Total	Men	Women	Total
First Year	2	2	4	9	6	15
Second Year	8	3	11	5	4	9
Third Year	9	4	13	4	2	6
Graduate	1	0	1	0	0	0
Special	1	1	2	1	0	1
Non-Matriculants	2	0	2	2	0	2
	—	—	—	—	—	—
Total	23	10	33	21	12	33

At a recent meeting of the Student Law Association the following officers were elected:

Charles L. Duke, President
 Lauretta D. Robinson, Vice-President
 Margaret E. Bliss, Secretary-Treasurer

Seven of the nine classrooms, four of the offices and substantial parts of two stack levels in Myron Taylor Hall are now being used by the Army, the Navy and the Pilot Training School. The 12 courses constituting the fall term program in law are being comfortably handled in Room B and Seminar Room 1.
